

Quest Connect Groups

Quest Connect Groups meet each week to discuss the message from Sunday, encourage each other, and grow in faith together.

Stop by the information center or visit our website for a list of groups, contact a host and make the connection this week.

Childcare is available at the church for Wednesday night groups.

Register online by midnight Sunday for childcare service this Wednesday.

1. With what group of people do you have great camaraderie? What is the most enjoyable aspect of this camaraderie?
2. Read Mark 8:34-37 as a group. What do you notice about these words from Jesus? What stands out to you? How might a person “forfeit their soul” or “exchange” their soul?
3. Read 1 Corinthians 2:12-14 as a group. Has there ever been a time when you felt someone didn’t understand your commitment to Christ? Or has there been a time when you didn’t understand someone else’s commitment to Christ? How did that experience make you feel?
4. What comes to mind when you think of “caring for your soul”? How are you currently caring for your soul? Do you feel your soul is currently 1) at rest; 2) troubled; 3) at war? Why?
5. What would it take for you to be willing to confess your sins to some others and ask them to pray for you? If you were ever going to take this step, in what setting would you be most likely to do so?
6. What impact has our series “Created for Community” had on your life? What is something you have learned during this series? What next step do you want to take based on the impact of what you’ve learned? Ask the group to pray for your next step.

The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Next Sunday @ The Quest

It's easy to think of doubt as a sign of weak faith. But it's not. God isn't afraid of our doubts, so we don't have to be either. In our new series, Doubting God, we're creating a space for the questions we've been afraid to ask.
